SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Dear Friends and Family of Youth for Christ,

We live in a rapidly changing and tumultuous time. The uncertainty we are facing in our culture right now makes it difficult for our young people to cope with their daily lives. The number of teenagers coming through our doors, with deep scars and deep needs, is growing. Our youth need us, more than ever, to give each of their stories the hope found in Jesus, ONE STORY AT A TIME.

To do this, we need your help in making the YFC Fundraising Dinner a success. I am excited to announce that our guest speaker this year is Terry Crews. Though probably best known for hosting America's Got Talent and his role in Brooklyn-Nine-Nine, his credits also include; action-movie hero, NFL linebacker, sitcom star, children's book illustrator, advertising pitchman, motivational speaker, playable video game character, high-end furniture designer, and human rights activist.

A man of faith and a true definition of success, Crews' life off-screen is as exciting and dynamic as his public persona. Crews is the husband of more than 30 years to wife Rebecca and proud father of five. Crews dedicates his free time to keeping physically fit while also working with several non-profit organizations including Safe Horizon, Peace Over Violence and the Polaris Project. For his dedication in helping these organizations, he was awarded the UN Global Generation Award and continues to be honored for his tireless advocacy in helping to combat sexual harassment and abuse, domestic violence, and human trafficking.

You are important to making this evening a success. Please read over the attached sponsorship opportunities and consider at what level you can partner with us.

As a sponsor you will receive valuable recognition through our advertising efforts, both before, during and after the event. This is a great way to market your business and at the same time bring faith and hope to our young people.

I look forward to hearing from you,

STEPHEN KAISS

Executive Director,
